. Heard learned Counsel for the parties. Considering the controversy it would be appropriate if the petitioners approach B.I.F.R. to place necessary facts, considering the balance sheet of the respondent No.1 and to point out that Respondent could not have been registered under the provisions of the S.I.C. (S.P.) Act. If such an application is made B.I.F.R. is directed to dispose of the same not later than six months from today.
